Manfred The Murderer

Deeply and mournfully

1. Man-fred the mur-der-er, the mur-der-er of kale. We tried to tell him not to, but it was to no avail. He
2. Man-fred the mur-der-er, the mur-der-er of trees. We tried to tell him not to; we said “Do not do that please!” But he
3. Man-fred the mur-der-er, the mur-der-er of lights. He hung them on the Christ-mas tree at just the perfect height. But he
4. Man-fred the mur-der-er, the mur-der-er of fishes, He murdered all the fishes, ’cause he said they’re so delicious. He
5. Man-fred the mur-der-er, the mur-der-er of potatoes, He murdered all the potatoes and he murdered all the tomatoes. He mur-dered all the kale, and he put it in a pail. In a mur-dered all the trees, and he fed them to the bees. To the screwed them in too tight, and now it’s dark as night. Dark as mur-dered all the fishes, and he served them up in dishes. That was mur-dered all the tomatoes and he ran off to Bar-bados. To Bar-pail, in a pail, in a pail. bees, to the bees, to the bees, night, dark as night, dark as night. vicious! That was vicious! That was vicious! bados, to Bar-bados, to Bar-bados.